

Josh Isaac Ng 1997 - 2018

Josh was a fun loving boy growing up. He loved to joke and play pranks. He was my Mr Bean. He loved animals like dogs, cats, turtles and birds. We had a close mother and son bond between us. He was the joy of my life .

To My Beloved Josh,

When you tried to leave the first time, God wouldn't let you and I'm thankful for that. The last 4 months when you were with me, listening to you playing with your friends on your PC game brought a semblance of joy to hear my only child laughing in the midst of his struggle and fight to carry on with life. But the 2nd time, I had had to see you go because your broken heart was too much to bear in your fragile soul. Now that you have found relief in the heavens above, not a day goes by without Mum missing everything about you. But you know, your leaving only emboldened me with strength and courage to ensure that your death shall not be in vain until I see you again.

With all my love,

Mother of Josh, the best Son on earth
